ADD

ad – "to"   dere - "add to, join, attach, place upon"

*denotes the syllable you will hear schwa

Math

addend + addend = sum

add (closed)

ad/ded (closed/closed)
add + ed
When adding -ed, must be divided between the dd, due to VCCV pattern

(v) - to put numbers or amounts together.

ad/di/tion
(closed/*open/suffix)

(n) - the act of adding something to something else

ad/dend
(closed/closed)

(n) – a number which is added to another

ad/di/tion/al
(closed/*open/suffix/suffix)
'al' – of or pertaining to

(adj) - More that what was agreed or expected

ad/di/tive
(closed/*open/suffix)
'ive' – causing or making

(n) – something that is added
(adj) - (of a function) having the property that the function of the union or sum of two quantities is equal to the sum of the functional values of each quantity

sum

(closed)
Latin – summa (the top, main thing)
Anglo French – summe (quantity or amonnt of money)
Old French - somme (amount, total, collection)

(n) – a calculation by adding

(v) – to count, count up, calculate or reckon

sum/ma/ry

*(closed/open/open)
*y at the end of 2+ syllable word says /ē/

(n) – a short statement that gives the main information about something, without giving all the details

sum/mar/ize

(closed/R-controlled/suffix)
'ize' – make

(v) – to make a short statement giving only the main information and not the details

sum/ma/ri/za/tion

*(closed/*open/open/open/suffix)
'ion' – act of, state of, result of

(n) – the action of preparing a summary